Fire Truck on Fire

— Because it Got Flooded and Then Backfired After it Got Hand-Pushed

It all began 9 P. M. last Saturday when Mrs. Mildred W. Bady asked the Narberth Fire Company to come up to her house. It's at 523 Dudley avenue and an electric light socket was spitting short circuits or something. Mrs. Bady accompanies the Narberth Male Double Quartet and is well liked, so the boys started up the two fire trucks right away. Or one of them.

The big hook and ladder, children's delight on parade days, wouldn't start, no matter how much Dick Blessing, lanky mail-carrying driver, stepped on it. The boys tried cranking, but the American LaFrance's engine has a cranky disposition. The battery, that in daytime is recharged for just such emergencies, ran down.

So the balky truck was pushed down Forest avenue to Haverford avenue, where the Maguire Brothers have a filling station. It dripped gas (the truck), and started, and backfired, and ignited the gas-drips underneath. So Jiggs Torchiana, employee of the service station, brought out a fire extinguisher (from the filling station) and put the fire out (in the truck).

The chemical truck had preceded it to the fire, which really wasn't any, after all.

Narberth Players

Twenty-Ninth Production, "Three Corned Moon," is now in rehearsal with the following cast: Faith Farmer, Francis Mitchell, William Hand, George McAllister, Nancy Simpson, William Farmer, Betty Lynch, Philip Reger and Margaret Hanson, the last two being two of the season's new members. The direction of the play is in the hands of Marjorie Topliss Flynn, assisted by Helen Trowbridge.

Gertrude Tonkonogy, the author, has the perception and the skill to make us forget we are looking at a play. She takes us by the hand and leads us into the heart of family life. You feel that it not only can happen, but is happening every day and there-in lies the secret of this play's great success. It is a play not too missed for an evening's good laugh; you may select either night—Friday, February 4, or Saturday, February 5, for a rollicking good time.

Business Council

Gains 22 New Members, ... Two Speakers at Dinner Next Monday

President Ralph S. Dunne has started the Narberth Business Council's new year with a bang by gaining 22 new members—a 50 per cent increase. And reservations are coming in nicely for the annual banquet, to which all business and professional people and their friends are invited. It will be held 7 P. M. Monday, at the Arcadia Restaurant's Green Room. The price, a dollar, includes dinner, entertainment, and ten door prizes.

Anthony Geuting, prominent shoe merchant, will be a speaker. He is former president of the National Association of Shoe Retailers and of the Market Street Business Men's Association, of which he is at present a director.

Information on the State's new 44-hour week regulations will be given by W. L. Boylan, of the State Department of Labor at Harrisburg.

Every business and professional man and woman in and near Narberth will be interested in plans which will be outlined by President Dunne, who will preside.

Dr. McDuffee Heads Two-County Dental Society

Dr. H. F. McDuffee, of Haverford avenue, Narberth, was elected president of the Dental Society of Chester and Delaware Counties at the annual meeting held Wednesday night in West Chester. Dr. McDuffee succeeds Dr. E. H. Ward, of Lancaster avenue, Ardmore, who headed the organization for the past year.

Well-known to the profession for his interest in Dental Economics, Dr. McDuffee is a member of the Committee on Economics of the Pennsylvania State Dental Society, a deputy of the American Dental Association, and served on the Advisory Committee to the Goodrich Commission.

Among other Main Line members of the association who were present were Dr. T. M. Rees and Dr. H. B. Laine, of Narberth.

New President

CLARENCE L. MYERS STUPE
MRS. WILLIAM J. EZICKSON of 108 South Narberth avenue, who took office last week as the new president of the Mulieres of the Narberth Fire Company.

Women's Club

Hunts for Home Leadership, Salvation Army, Health Center, Coming Events.

"How many of you take the arrival of your children from school or your husband from the office as a signal for being somewhat worn out?" asked Miss Sophia W. Bliven, chairman of Family Finance of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, of the members of the Women's Community Club of Narberth, when she addressed them on Leadership at their general meeting Tuesday afternoon.

"Physical energy is one of the requisites of leadership, both in the home and club. You must somehow convince your family that you have all types of energy, even if it means letting the dusting go while you rest. You can't be worn out and inspire anyone, and yet inspiration is another mark of a leader. So is enthusiasm, the kind that survives over a period of time. Mother will be the leader in the home, as she should be, if she gives her family the example of energy, friendliness, and faith in herself and those about her." Miss Bliven was introduced by Mrs. E. J. Pollock, Program chairman.

Tells of Army's Work
Major Hazelwood, of the North Broad street branch of the Salvation Army, who spoke of the work of the Army in the Philadelphia area, was cited by Miss Bliven as a fine example of leadership. Charming in the simplicity of her uniform and her soft manner, Major Hazelwood told how

Mulieres Plan

The Executive Board of the Mulieres of the Narberth Fire Company met Monday at the home of the new president, Mrs. William J. Ezickson, South Narberth avenue. Plans were discussed for a covered dish luncheon and bridge party to be held February 21 in Elm Hall. This will be the one large affair for raising money for the organization given this year so the public is cordially invited to help by buying tickets. The committee: Mrs. J. Ben Taylor, chairman; Mrs. Charles E. Harnden, Mrs. John E. Wetzell and Mrs. Albert H. Nulty.

Engaged

MISS LOUISE MEGGEE
daughter of Mrs. Ralph Davidson, Narberth, whose engagement to
Mr. George Cochran Wilmont, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith
Wilmont, of Essex avenue, Narberth, is announced.

"Big Fires

From Little Causes" Were Described by John A. Miller.

Narberth deputy fire chief, at the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary luncheon Tuesday. Main causes to guard against, he said, are defective wiring, spontaneous combustion from piled papers, etc., fireplace sparks on shingle roofs, defective flues and matches and lighted cigarettes.

He said Lower Merion and Narberth, with seven fire stations, have 16 pieces of apparatus costing $179,000, and at $40 a year per hydrant, for 466 fire plugs in Lower Merion and 45 in Narberth, pay $20,000 for water protection. The 180 volunteer members of the seven companies would, if they received a minimum $5 a day pay, cost the section over $36,000 a year in extra salaries. Last year these men answered 564 alarms, limiting the fire loss on property valued at $2,107,000, to $133,900.

It was announced that Dr. Arno Vilhoever, of the Gross Laboratory of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science will tell the Rotarians next Tuesday of the marijuana dope evil. He will speak as a scientist, by request of Rotarian Alvin E. Shull, whose son, Kenneth, attends the college. He has no connection with the "Narcotic Education Campaign" whose spokesman, Earl Albert Rowell, has won considerable publicity on the Main Line recently.

Classification Chairman Ralph S. Dunne checked over classifications of the 30 members, to pave the way for new memberships.

Bill Decker, aided by Guy Croyle and Jack Miller, worked on radiators to relieve the Overbrook Golf Club chill.

Dr. Raymon M. Staley, vice-president, made preliminary announcement of the spring session in June.

Legion

Submarine Party and Dinner at the Cynwyd Legion Post will be given 9 P. M., Saturday, the 29th, by the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, American Legion, of Narberth. The new Cynwyd Legion Post Home is at Conshohocken State and Manayunk roads.

There will be no advance sale of tickets. Admission of $1.50 per couple will be collected at the door. Members of Main Line posts, their friends, and residents of the community are cordially invited.

Proceeds will go towards liquidation of the debt Narberth Post incurred when it erected the World War Memorial grouping last spring.

Regular monthly meeting of the Post will be held in the Community Building, Narberth, 8:30 P. M. Monday, the 24th.

Better Light

For the Children to Read by Will Be Installed in the Narberth

Primary School, as a result of action taken at the School Board meeting Tuesday night. Estimates are being asked, according to Dr. Leroy A. King, president, for intensive rewiring and new fixtures. Bids will be opened at the board meeting February 16.

Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold presented his resignation, and following the action of Borough Council, John R. Hall, ex-burgess, was elected for the unexpired four-year term.

In addition to Dr. King, Mrs. H. R. Rinehart, Dr. Walter Steckbeck and Robert C. Collins, Jr., attended the meeting. Treasurer J. L. McCreery being absent due to illness. Also present was the board's solicitor, Roland S. Fleer.

The Rod and Gun

Club of Lower Merion Awarded Prizes at Its Meeting Wednesday night, held in the Narberth Community Building, for biggest fish caught by its members last year. Sports equipment was presented for catches as follows: Elmer Jenkins, pickerel; Harold Dietrich, small-mouth bass; Clarence Kaerber, Jr., bass; Norman Dorsey, weakfish; J. A. Miller, brook trout.

Films were shown of trout and bass fishing, and a talk was given on cross shooting. Announcement was made that a dinner will be held soon, for members and wives. Several members will attend a sportsmen's banquet in Norristown Monday. To enter casting events in the coming Sportsmen's Show in Philadelphia, a committee was appointed: John Miller, Joseph P. White, Ernest Jenkins, Clarence Kaerber, Jr., and Randolph Buck.

Penn's Coach

Remains a Narberth Resident, as Manager Joins Bala-Cynwyd Elite

Narberth maintained the proud tradition which it shares with Bala-Cynwyd, last week, when George Almond Munger, Narberth Hall, was made head football coach at Penn. He lives a stone's throw away from retiring Harvey Harman, his predecessor, and two blocks from Louis Alonzo Young, who, except for a brief Lud Wray period, was his predecessor.

Also nearby lives Referee Wilmer G. Crowell, who has a football outlined on his sidewalk. Not long ago Lon Jourdet, basketball coach, lived in Narberth. Sports Writer Ed Pollock is a borough resident. And there's Ted Meredith, track coach.

Bala-Cynwyd has its share of sports luminaries, including newlywed Paul Scull, All-American back on Penn's greatest team; Rusty Callow, crew coach at Penn, and Lawson Robertson, Olympic trainer and track coach.

George Munger, who at 27 is Penn's youngest and one of the least aged in the land, is the son of the Herbert N. Mungers, 347 Bala avenue, Cynwyd, who have lived in Cynwyd four years and before that in Merion for 12 years. George has a charming wife.

He will have three assistant coaches, as against Harman's two. He plans to retain the Warner single wing back style of play with variations. Is noted for the colorful plays and formations that his teams have used, winning 27 games and losing but three, in his five years of coaching—at Episcopal and Penn, where he tutored the freshmen. His career in football, basketball and track has been sensational, at Hill School, Episcopal Academy, and Penn. As coach, his neighbors, professional and amateur, wish him well.

Junior Women's Club

Enjoys Book Club Meeting, State Chairman Will Speak Next Thursday

The Publicity Magazine which goes to press at the Junior Women's Club meeting next Thursday will have three "feature" stories: Mrs. A. W. Warner, the State chairman of Publicity for Federated Women's Clubs; Mrs. Leon W. Meleher, chairman of Publicity for Montgomery County, and Tom Elwood, editor of OUR TOWN, will make us Press-minded. The rest of the "Magazine" will be shown that night. Oh! Yes, the music department will contain the Parents-Teachers' Association Chorus!

Last night the Book Club enjoyed the Review of American Literature given by Mrs. F. N. Floyd, the Press and Publicity Chairman of the Senior Club.

The bridge tournament starts on the 31st. If you haven't signed up call Mrs. F. Munroe Purse or Miss Margaret Kent. It is open to the public and will meet every other Monday afternoon.

This week's Blanket Club winner was Mrs. C. F. Creamer.

Mrs. Ellsworth Clarke, Literature Chairman, held a committee meeting at her home Monday afternoon. The members include Mrs. R. F. Price, Mrs. Ebba Greist, Mrs. Robert Tabor and Mrs. Roma Brown.

Those who attended the Press Committee meeting at the home of the chairman on Tuesday evening included Mrs. Thomas J. Skillman, Jr., Miss Lois Smith, Mrs. Raymond Keegan, Mrs. J. C. Foltz and Mrs. T. W. Jackson.

Dense Smoke

from a small fire on the first floor of the Bellevue-Stratford enlivened the Poor Richard Club's 33rd annual banquet Monday night. However, most of the Narberth guests were home before 3:30 A. M., when the excitement occurred. Those from here included Howard F. Kaier, Joseph H. Nash, Robert F. Wood and Ralph S. Dunne. Vocalist on the entertainment program was Peggy Madison (the R. D. MacGuffins' daughter, of Merion).

Narberth Bridge Club

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker tied with Mr. and Mrs. William Boyle for top score.

Monday evening tournament: Top score, J. H. Baker and Roy Greenwood; second place, Arthur Cooney and Dr. Mark E. Morgan.

Suffers Stroke

Partial paralysis caused Joseph D. Maguire, 300 Grayling, to be rushed to Bryn Mawr Hospital Wednesday noon. Well beloved, he is wished a speedy recovery.

New Official

of Shirley road, who is the first Borough Councilman from his part of Narberth since A. Perry Redifer died. Succeeding Frank A. Schrepper, who was moved up to Burgess, Mr. Miller is the new chairman of Council's Building Committee and a member of the committees on Public Safety, Property, and Ordinance and Law—where the ordinance appointing a Planning Commission is lodged.

Library Volunteers

Est. Mrs. Wood, Founder, at Tea. List of Those She Trained is Big.

Mrs. William Bailey Goodall, of Dudley avenue, and other former members of the Volunteer Staff of the Narberth Public Library living in Narberth, are giving a tea at Mrs. Goodall's this Friday from 4 until 6 in honor of Mrs. Robert Fellows Wood, who retired recently from the Board of Trustees (OUR TOWN, December 31).

Following are volunteer librarians she has trained during the past 17 years, some of whom are now professional librarians in various parts of the country, while others have passed away:

Mrs. Samuel Atherholt, Mrs. Roland C. Aungst, and the Misses Katherine, Peggy and Adele Aungst (who is librarian at Ohio State University). Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, Mrs. Clifford W. Bates, Mrs. Willis E. Blodgett, now living in Massachusetts; Mrs. Thaddeus L. Bolton, Mrs. William Boryer, Mrs. John B. Brooks, Mrs. Hugh Brown, now living in the middle west; Miss Ida Buckman, Miss Margaret Burrell, Mrs. W. Roberts Cameron, Miss Marjorie Cowin, assistant librarian at the Bala-Cynwyd Library; Mrs. Howard Cappel, living near New York; Miss Frances Christ, former librarian in Narberth; Mrs.

George C. Hagar,

89-Year-Old Civil War Veteran Dies

Services at Home Today at Ten

Ill with bronchial pneumonia for the past week, Mr. Hagar passed away at his home, 430 Haverford avenue, on Tuesday, at 4:30 P. M. His wife, Mrs. George C. Hagar, was ill with pleural pneumonia at the same time.

Mr. Hagar was 89 years of age, a veteran of the Civil War. He was a member of the Baptist Temple for years, but because of advanced age attended lately the Presbyterian Church at Narberth.

The services are 10 A. M. this Friday, at the residence, 430 Haverford road.

Mr. Hagar was formerly a resident of the State of Connecticut. He moved to Brooklyn 26 years ago to live with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Palen P. Rossman. He has been a resident of Narberth for the past ten years.

The following tribute was written by a friend:

"His life was an endless benefaction to those about him. He possessed a great loving heart, hands which worked the work of Christ, and feet that were ever going about doing good. He was a brave soul who could adapt himself to the storms of life with a resolution that knew no retreat. He now rests with the One who said that 'He giveth his beloved sleep.' In the passing of this stalwart Christian gentleman we seem to hear our Lord say, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord.'"

The Narberth Library's annual report will be published next week. Also next week a continuation of the Chronology of local events of last year.

World Affairs

Will be the Current Events Lecture Topic of Thomas C. Shaffer, at the Meeting of the Narberth Parents-Teachers' Association in the Narberth Public School auditorium Monday evening, January 31.

Mr. Shaffer, who is recognized as an outstanding speaker and authority on Current Events, will bring the latest happenings in the world. He is a member of the editorial staff of one of the Philadelphia papers. Many of his articles have appeared in the New York Herald Tribune. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia University. He has traveled extensively in Europe, Africa and Asia.

The Invocation will be given by the Reverend Gibson Bell and the Salute to the Flag by Scout Peggy Burns, of Troop 8. Music by the Narberth School Glee Club.

The Finance and Budget Committee of the Parent-Teacher Association have been deluged with requests that they again repeat the Sauer Krout Dinner which proved so successful last year. Mrs. H. F. Darnes, chairman, and her committee have planned to give another dinner February 17, from 5:30 until 7:30, so save this date for you will be given delicious home-made foods for the small sum of 60 cents. There will be something else for those who do not care for the krout, but we'll tell you about that later. Everybody is invited to come and help contribute to the budget of the Finance Committee.

A Gold Button

Mocking 50 Years' Service Was Presented A. H. Durboraw

last Thursday night by the Pennsylvania Railroad at a testimonial dinner. Mr. Durboraw, who has been a resident of Narberth at 125 Elmwood avenue for 19 years, has for that period been office manager of the

A. H. DURBORAW

Stores Department. Before that he was chief clerk in the Maintenance and Way at Pittsburgh. Born at Two Taverns, near Gettysburg, February 11, 67 years ago, he began his railroad career as Agent at Littlestown, Pa.

All his life a devout churchman, Mr. Durboraw has long served on the Council of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth; and in the United Lutheran Church of America he has been president of the Brotherhood and Social Union, as well as member of the Board of American Missions.

The Durboraws' daughter, Esther, lives with them; their other daughter, Mrs. T. M. Malin, has her home in York.

Merion Girl Scouts'

New Troop 230's Committee Met Thursday Afternoon at the Home of the chairman, Mrs. John Porter Scott, Latches lane, Merion, to plan the duties of each member with Mrs. Homer Eachus, troop leader. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Lester Lessig, Mrs. Robert H. Wilkinson and Mrs. F. N. Floyd.

Merion Troop 18, composed of High School girls, will hold a dance Saturday night at nine o'clock at the home of Mrs. Philip F. Murray, program chairman of the Main Line Committee. Ten couples will attend and punch and hamburgers will be served. Mrs. Eachus is leader of Troop 18.

The senior patrol of Troop 230, made up of the seventh grade girls, met Tuesday afternoon with Troop 18 for clay modeling. Dedee Danenhower was made patrol leader and Barbara Floyd, scribe.

Testimonial Dinner

to Edwin P. Dold, retiring tax collector, was held last night (Thursday), after OUR TOWN went to press. Mr. Dold, who is leaving for California, is continuing his tax duties until the end of next week.

Infantile Paralysis

This January 29 will be Narberth's sixth annual endeavor in fighting Infantile Paralysis and the rehabilitation of Infantile Paralysis sufferers. Practically every merchant and businessman has contributed each year to this fund and a number of others have helped regularly.

Now this is your problem, too. Think of it in terms of yourself. If you—or your son or daughter—were suddenly stricken by this strange malady, what could you do? Where could you go for help? How long could you finance the necessary, specialized care?

The grim terror—Infantile Paralysis—every year, in some town, some county, some State produces fear, panic, death, human wreckage—and is no respecter of age or class.

In case of epidemic our community may receive from this new National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis many times the amount we raise, and would bring to our local health offices the immediate aid of any preventives, immunizations, serums or inoculations made available by investigators; rush in orthopedic supplies and equipment (the iron lung, for example); immediately place with all the local health authorities and doctors the latest knowledge on diagnosis and care during the acute stage and aid the local hospitals with funds to provide facilities and equipment for caring for large numbers.

I appeal to every family in our community to aid in this great humanitarian work.

Make check to National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis or:

W. H. HAWS,
General Chairman.

Announcement

is made by Robert J. Nash that L. Bruce Stallard has joined his organization this week and will make the Wynnewood office, Lancaster pike and Wynnewood road, his headquarters. He will also be responsible for the Narberth office, succeeding the late Henry Nash. Mr. Stallard, who is a graduate of Temple University, '31, has in recent years been associated with the real estate department of the Pennsylvania Company.

Mr. Nash, who is a former president of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board, entertained at luncheon last Saturday, other real estate men of the Main Line, and Narberth business leaders, to introduce Mr. Stallard. The Nash organization was founded 25 years ago.

Nino Martini Now Playing at Egyptian in 'Music for Madame'

The world's greatest living tenor and one of the screen's most recent discoveries—Nino Martini, and Joan Fontaine—are linked in a sparkling romance in "Music for Madame," playing at the Egyptian this Friday and Saturday.

If you could use some good, hearty, soul-satisfying laughter we prescribe a quick trip to the Egyptian this Monday or Tuesday, where the funniest domestic comedy of the season is playing, "The Awful Truth," co-starring Irene Dunne and Cary Grant.

"Breakfast for Two," co-starring Barbara Stanwyck and Herbert Marshall, is a howling success. This fast-moving hilarious comedy is unquestionably one of the gayest and most brilliant films of the year, and is playing at the Egyptian next Wednesday and Thursday, including Thursday matinee.

Special Juvenile Program at Suburban Sat. Afternoon

"Mayerling" will not be shown at the Saturday Suburban Theater, Ardmore, matinee. Instead a special juvenile program has been arranged which includes Mickey Mouse; the serial, "SOS, Coast Guard;" Johnny Mack Brown Western Picture and the feature film starring Jack Haley, Patsy Kelly and Stuart Erwin in "Pigskin Parade."

International aeronautical experts who visited the Gaumont film studios recently gave the seal of approval to the major set in the production, "Non-Stop New York," representing a complete transatlantic plane of the future. The movie airship is streamlined, cabined and equipped, and fitted with everything that is necessary for a flight. The pilots in the film are regularly licensed pilots.

Incidentally, this is actually the first instance of the screen really scooping the news, as the film makes its bow several months before Imperial Airways and Pan American inaugurate regular passenger service between London and New York. "Non-Stop New York" features Anna Lee and John Loder.

The Narberth W. C. T. U.

held their regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. C. H. Nold, 100 Wynnedale road. A good crowd was in attendance. Extensive plans were made for the coming year. Ladies, we ask you to save your old magazines and old silk stockings. Mrs. W. Y. Hutchinson will see that they are delivered to the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Coatesville. These boys make rugs from the stockings. We are going to crochet a rug for these boys at the regular meetings. A membership drive is being conducted all over the State and any lady is invited to join the local Union by paying the yearly dues of $1.00.

MRS. R. C. KENNEDY.

Girl Scout Troop 125

The opening was very formal because a contest is going on for the patrol with most points at the end of the year. The prize will be given then, so the girls were all quiet and neat; they even had their shoes shined so you could see the room reflected in them. The Lieutenant, Lucy Baker, dictated sentences in code. Each patrol translated, and the patrol that translated correctly was given five points toward the prize. After that games were played followed by a goodnight circle.

MARY MCCAFFERTY.

"Firefly." Friml Operetta is Playing at Narberth

"The Firefly," impressive adaptation of Rudolf Friml's memorable operetta, sets a new high in cinema entertainment, this week-end at the Narberth Theater. It presents a powerful story of dramatic romance, as well as a vehicle for remarkable music. M-G-M has gone the limit in settings and in artistry of presentation—even surpassing "The Great Ziegfeld," which won the same producer and director the Academy Award.

Warren William is one of the three stars. The others are Jeanette MacDonald and Allan Jones, her new costar. They sing "Love is Like a Firefly," "He Who Loves and Runs Away," "When a Maid Comes Knocking at Your Heart," "A Woman's Kiss," "The Donkey Serenade," and the duets, "Giannina Mia" and "Symphony."

Coming Monday and Tuesday are Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell and Robert Benchley in the sprightly comedy, "Live, Love and Learn."

MOVIE THRILLER

A little lass named Goldy, aged nine, sat in a movie house and watched a picture. About 4 P. M. Goldy fell sound asleep. About 5 P. M. the theatre closed until time for the evening show.

At 5:15 or thereabouts our little Miss crept timorously up the darkened aisle, but the doors were locked! By now all sleep had vanished and Goldy was afraid. But then her mental mechanism began to click. Out popped this thought—There must be a 'phone in the manager's office.

She put her thought to action and in no time the police unlocked the door.

Emergencies—the times when you need the telephone most—aren't always particular about turning up during regular business hours. So your telephone must be, and is, ready to help you to reach anyone, anywhere at any time! The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

Wednesday, Narberth's big night, and Thursday, Robert Young and James Stewart will star in "Navy Blue and Gold."

Children's Show at Egyptian

The Main Line Junior Cinema Alliance is presenting another of its programs designed especially for children, this Saturday, January 22. The feature is "General Spanky," a full-length production featuring Spanky McFarland and Walt Disney's "Academy Award Review" which combines five of Walt Disney's prize winning cartoons including the celebrated "Three Little Pigs."

A novelty stage show will be an added attraction. Performances are at 10:30 A. M. and 2:15 P. M. and as usual they will be held at the Egyptian Theater, Bala-Cynwyd, Pa.

Narberth School

On January 15, the Pupils of the Narberth Public School were entertained by a musical program, presented by the orchestra and the Glee Club. Betty Ann Mulligan led the devotions. The Glee Club sang two groups of songs during the program. The people that announced the songs and the songs sung were; Elaine Starr—telling about Highways and Byways, Carol Schroder (dressed in a Chinese costume), spoke of the song, "Lanterns," Gloria Civitello told the origin of "Ticti Ticta," Marjorie Enz spoke about the writing of "The Bells," and the whole audience sang "America," while the orchestra played it.

The orchestra played "Finlandia," part of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, and a group of waltzes, "Blue Waves." Dick Whiting, saxophone, Fred Kuebler, cello, and Claire DeHart, piano, played solos.

The eighth grade girls are painting and fixing the teacher's room. Under Miss Gassner's supervision they have nearly completed their task. The color scheme is blue and maroon. The room is to be of a nautical type, with deck chairs, etc. As they were studying about the furnishing of a house, this fits in with their work.

ELEANOR HAYWOOD,
Student Reporter.

On January 17, Miss Rambo, from the Commercial Museum, gave a lecture for the first, second and fourth grades, about Eskimos. She showed an Eskimo suit, gloves and tools.

On January 6 the girls played their first basketball game. At the end of the four quarters the score was 8-8. Because of this tie the teams were allowed to play another quarter. Alice Cook, who plays for the reds, made a basket making the score 10-8.

On January 13 the reds were winning until the third quarter, when Eleanor Haywood made a basket, the score being 8-9. Then Alice Cook made a basket making the score 10-9. A large number of boys and girls turned out for these two games.

On January 10 the boys played their first intra-school basketball game. There are four teams which play alternately. The captains are: Victor Heath, Bob Miller, Bob Narrigan and Bob Hayward. The scores were, Heath 7, Narrigan 7, Miller 2, and Hayward 3.

On January 17 the scores were Hayward 10, Miller 7, Heath 5, and Narrigan 0.

Time Out

L. M. Found Radnor Not So Hard, Norristown At Villanova Tonight.

Radnor, usually the drab gray of a waning sunset, this year has loomed as the high light along the western horizon of the Suburban Basketball League. To Lower Merion, the Wayne aggregation loomed big as the one real danger between them and another league flag, yet their superior basketball ability is very much in doubt. Their effectiveness is born of a small gymnasium, a low ceiling and a mad western two-two-one zone defense. This perfect triangle of floor conditions and defensive policy creates an almost immoveable object. As a result Radnor will win most, if not all, of their home games.

On the road, however, things will shape up differently. Cheltenham should and probably will defeat them when the Main Liners journey to Old York Road. Lower Merion took things comparatively easy last Friday night and won against the Raiders by a score of 23 to 17. This game, of course, was played in the Maroon gymnasium, where the boys had plenty of room for circulation and plenty of height to arch their shots. Things will be different when they go to Radnor on the eighth of February.

Cheltenham High School was the opposition last Tuesday night, and the game, which was played at Elkins Park, was one of the best in the league so far. Cheltenham has one of the three really strong teams in the suburbs.

Tonight's game will be at Villanova. Norristown, that home of athletes and sports writers, sends the high school basketball team to the Main Line to subdue Bill Anderson and his basketballers. My guess is that they will learn many things about the game if they keep their collection on Clarence Griffith and George P. —and company.

The Junior High gym was the scene of intense excitement last Thursday night when the Leopards won a hard fought victory over Rittenhouse Junior High of Norristown. The score could not have been closer without complications. The local won, 24 to 23. Holding a 20 to 11 advantage going into the final quarter, the Orange and Black made some choice blunders that allowed the visitors to tie the score at 23 all. Stellar work by Walter White, 5-foot center for Lower Merion, was the real cause of victory. Walter dropped in a winning point from the free throw line a few seconds before the final buzzer.

It was a good game between two good teams. Bayard and Philadelphia furnish the opposition for Leopards this week. Bayard is a V. mington Junior High School, probably the strongest team on the schedule and will probably win.

TOMMY MACKLIN.

the sixty uniformed officers and 800 volunteers of the branch meet all sorts of people under all sorts of circumstances and try to help them. She said that around 70 per cent of money given goes directly to the poor, and that no money collected in drives is sent out of this country. There is a little sent each Easter by the workers themselves, and that is all.

Some of the work of the Salvation Army in Philadelphia outlined by Major Hazelwood is: Hotel for 125 transient men; settlement for children of parents who work at South Third street, where 10,000 children were cared for in 1937; prison welfare, contacts with the prisoners and help to their families; anti-suicide bureau; transient bureau; social service building in Roxborough, where $58,000 is paid in salaries each year apart from maintaining 150 men employed in the building; summer camp; hospital in Lansdowne for unmarried mothers and their children, and Ivy House, near the hospital, where the children are raised, and the Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets.

Major Hazelwood was introduced by Mrs. Henry F. Dover, chairman of the Salvation Army drive in the districts covering the Borough of Narberth and part of Merion, which district is in charge of the Narberth club. Captains under Mrs. Dover are: Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Mrs. William Muller, Mrs. J. H. Speck, Mrs. A. B. Doty, Mrs. Lewis Crater, Mrs. E. K. Bauer, and Mrs. W. R. Knauer.
